

Institute of Public Librarianship

Basic Certification Classes – Fall 2016

Public Library Administration 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Upon completing this class, students will have knowledge of:

- the library's governing structure and its responsibilities
- the roles and responsibilities of the library board and the librarian
- the principal means of funding Oklahoma's public libraries
- the sources of income for their individual library – and more!

Public Library Administration, September 6, Woodward

Public Library Administration, September 8, Coalgate

Public Library Administration, September 13, Waurika

Public Library Administration, September 15, Perry

Collection Development 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Upon completing this class, students will have knowledge of:

- the publication, production and distribution of library materials in order to select, acquire, make available and use these materials
- the factors affecting the selection of materials and will be able to design appropriate selection criteria for their communities
- selection tools for both print and non print materials and how they are used
- the advantages and limitations of various formats and materials – and more!

Collection Development, September 20, Mounds

Collection Development, September 28, Elk City

Collection Development, October 5, McAlester

Collection Development, October 6, Alva

Services for Adults 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Upon completing this class, students will have knowledge of:

- ethical issues involved in reference service, including confidentiality, objectivity and limitations on interpreting information provided to patrons
- effective reference interview skills, including the analysis of requests and the design of search strategies
- the importance of establishing a welcoming atmosphere and actively encouraging patron requests
- the skills needed to fulfill information requests through access to the general collection, digital and community resources, and other libraries and agencies – and more!

Services for Adults, October 11, Sulphur

Services for Adults, October 12, Watonga

Services for Adults, October 18, Duncan

Services for Adults, October 20, Inola

How to Think Like a Librarian 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

This is a live video presentation. The presenter will be at ODL and will broadcast to 2 offsite locations.

Upon completing this class, students will have knowledge of:

- history of libraries from ancient times to the 20th century
- the contributions of Dewey, Carnegie and others
- the contributions of Oklahoma library leaders, i.e. Allie Beth Martin, Edmon Low, Leta Dover, Ruth Brown, etc.
- definition of public library – and more!

October 25

How to Think Like a Librarian, Oklahoma City

How to Think Like a Librarian, Clinton

How to Think Like a Librarian, Poteau

October 26

How to Think Like a Librarian, Oklahoma City

How to Think Like a Librarian, Ardmore SOLS

How to Think Like a Librarian, Bartlesville

November 2

How to Think Like a Librarian, Oklahoma City

How to Think Like a Librarian, Guthrie

How to Think Like a Librarian, Westville

Questions? Contact Librarian Certification at the Oklahoma Department of Libraries

405-521-2502