

STORY WALKS IN OKLAHOMA

A Story Walk is a fun and engaging activity for children and their families. Story Walks place a children's book (an oversized book taken apart) along an outdoor walking path in communities. Most of the Story Walks listed below were funded with Health Literacy Grants to public libraries from the Oklahoma Department of Libraries and the Institute of Museum and Library Services. Watch for more Story Walks to appear in Oklahoma during the months to come!

Visit Story Walk Locations

- Altus Public Library
Hightower Park, 121 North Park Lane
- Anadarko Community Library
Randlett Park, Northwest Edge of Town
- Checotah—Jim Lucas Public Library
Checotah Sports Complex, 989 N. Broadway
- Chickasha Public Library
Centennial/Kids Place Park, 610 W Texas Ave
- Eufaula—Muscogee Creek Nation
Walking Trail, Lakeshore Drive
- Lawton Public Library
Two Story Walks on the north and south sides of Elmer Thomas Park, 501 NW Ferris Ave
- McLoud Public Library
Lawrence Wahpepah Trails, 416 S 8th Street
- Miami Public Library
Rotary Park, 514 Circle Dr. NW
- Ponca City Library
Cann Memorial Gardens, 1500 E Grand Ave
- Purcell Public Library
City Lake Trail, 1400 Chandler Road
- Stillwater Public Library
Two Story Walks, one Downtown and one at Couch Park, 800 E 12th Ave
- Tecumseh Public Library
Slick Humphrey Park, 901 W Walnut Street
- Stilwell Public Library
Edna M. Carson Stilwell Community Park, 1155 W Hickory Street

Check out the map of Oklahoma Story Walks at libraries.ok.gov/storywalks

